

20th June, 2023

People, Place, Policy – Shaping our education system for the next decade

Programme

fed.education

Headline sponsor:

Hosts:

Supported by:

With thanks:

with grateful thanks to our event sponsors and supporters

Headline sponsor:

Hosts:

Supported by:

With thanks:

Event sponsors:

Academicis, BlueSky Education, Cognition Education, EdPol, Evaluate-Ed, globalbridge, Hub4Leaders, The Inspiration Learning Group, LCR Connect, Lexonik, Opogo, Pearson, Performance Learning, The Glasshouse Leadership Lab and Twin Science.

Schedule

Time	Content
8.00am	Breakfast. 523/519
8.40am	Choice of a) Shakespeare North Playhouse workshop. Start your day with the Bard and some ideas for workshops in your school or college, presented by Shakespeare North Playhouse. 137 b) A new politics for education transformation? Sir Michael Barber one of the most experienced voices in public policy and author of Accomplishment: How to Achieve Ambitious and Challenging Things in conversation with Valerie Hannon , global thought leader and author of the new report A new politics for transforming education: Towards an effective way forward. chaired by Holly Papworth , Public First. 101 c) Maths 4 Girls. Sherry Coutu CBE , CEO of Founders4Schools, talking about a new programme to encourage a broader take up of Maths post-16. 135
9.30am	Official Opening and Welcome. The Rt Hon Gillian Keegan MP , Secretary of State for Education, Carl Ward , Chair of the FED, Ruth Slater , Head of Centre for Education Leadership at LJMU and our hosts for the day, Jonas Andrew-Phillip and Penelope Harrison , co-chairs FED Learners Council. LLT
9.45am	Steve Rotheram , Mayor of the Liverpool City Region. LLT
9.55am	Shaping the next decade. A series of opening challenges. LLT
10.15am	Choice of a) Does OFSTED require improvement? Come and share your views with Lord Jim Knight , Chair of the NEU's 'Beyond OFSTED' review, Sir Michael Wilshaw , former Chief Inspector of Schools, and Meena Wood , international education consultant, and chaired by Liz Robinson , CEO of Big Education. Sponsored by Evaluate-Ed. LT1 b) Recruitment and retention: We know the problems, but what are the solutions? Emma Dickinson , Principal Policy Officer for Employment and Skills at Liverpool City Regional Combined Authority chairs a session with Professor Tanya Ovenden-Hope , Plymouth Marjon University, Dr Steph Ainsworth , Manchester Metropolitan University, and Robin Landman OBE , Black Leadership Group. Sponsored by Opogo. LT2

CONTINUED >

Schedule

Time	Content
10.50am	Choice of a) SEND – practical ideas for long term change. Salise Dourmouh, Senior Associate at Geldards LLP, in discussion with Ali Durban, co-founder Gesher School, Frances Akinde, SEND Advisor, Nicola Bailey and chaired by Nas Hussein. Sponsored by Hub4Leaders. 101 b) Education leadership – new models for support and development. Liz Robinson, CEO Big Education, James Pope, Director of InspirEDucate and founder of the HeadsUp4Hts, Heather Phillips, Headteacher and founder of Luminosa Coaching and Dr Ceri Daniels, Director of the School of Education representing the Centre for Education Leadership, Robin Landman OBE and Elaine Bowker, CEO and Principal of City of Liverpool College and chaired by Ruth Slater. Sponsored by Academicis. LT1 c) Technology in Education: imagining the future. As technology evolves, its role in teaching, learning and assessment poses many possibilities, challenges and questions. This panel discussion, chaired by Sharon Hague, Director of School Assessment and Qualifications at Pearson, will explore emerging trends and innovations, opportunities for enhancing experiences for students with SEND, and the role of technology in assessments of the future. It will also consider the barriers to overcome with equity of access and touch on international case studies we can draw on to help us realise the future we imagine. With Lord Jim Knight, Peter Atherton, Liverpool John Moores University, Sherry Coutu CBE, Founders4Schools, and Nikeisha Webb-Hardy, Gesher School. Sponsored by Pearson. LT2
11.30am	Coffee break. 523/519
11.55am	Choice of a) Wellbeing for all? Building emotionally healthy schools and colleges. How can we build the kind of education environments that make all people who learn and work in them feel safe and supported? Chaired by Martin Kerridge, Liverpool John Moores University, in discussion with Dr Pooja Saini, Liverpool John Moores University, Dr Steph Ainsworth, Manchester Metropolitan University, Ellie Cross, Fair Education Alliance, David Baker and Curtis Worrell, Class 13. Sponsored by Lexonik. 137 b) Broadening the post 14 curriculum. How can we provide better options and continuity post 14? Nansi Ellis, policy consultant to the Edge Foundation, Patrick Craven, Executive Director at City and Guilds, David Gallagher, CEO of NCFE and Ben Mason, Founder and CEO at globalbridge. Sponsored by Twin Science. LT1 c) Broadening the primary curriculum. As the Chartered College embarks on a 'Rethinking the primary curriculum' project, how might we look again at what is taught, learned and assessed in primary school? Andy Moor, CEO Holy Family Catholic MAT, Jen Crittenden, Chartered College for Teachers, Joe Hallgarten, Centre for Education and Youth, Liz Robinson, CEO Big Education and chair Martin Allen Morales, CEO of the Institute of Imagination. LT2

CONTINUED >

Time	Content
12.30pm	Lunch starts being served. 523/519
12.35pm	Choice of a) Building a climate change and sustainability strategy: A practical guide. Schools and colleges have both a responsibility to be sustainable places and to educate for a more sustainable world. This panel will showcase FED's work on resources and suggest some ways forward for this dual challenge. With Keya Lamba, Co-Founder Earth Warriors Global, Django Perks, SOS-UK, Phoebe Hanson, Esmée Fairbairn Foundation Consultant, Stephen Henry, Cognition Education, and chaired by John Byrne, Professor of Useful Art Liverpool John Moores University. Sponsored by Cognition Education. LT2 b) Pressing unmuter. Making your voice heard. Whether learners, parents, the disengaged or the vulnerable, all have a right to be heard in education policy making. This open conversation will ask how we can learn from the wide variety of voices and wisdoms in the system to build policy that works? Join Matt Silver, Founder of the Glasshouse Leadership Lab as he chairs a conversation with Ellie Costello, Executive Director Square Peg, Elijah Denning, Fair Education Alliance, Nas Hussein, Independent Education Advisor and Hannah Kirkbride, CEO Career Matters. Sponsored by The Glasshouse Leadership Lab. 137
1.10pm	Lunchtime conversations a) How can we reset English education? Dame Kathy August and Tom Clark, Vice Chair of Academy Transformation Trust, a Board Member of City Learning Trust and a special adviser to the Board of the Association of Education Advisers, in conversation with Dr Craig Hammond, Liverpool John Moores University. LT1 b) A Manifesto for Hope. Ten principles for transforming the lives of children and young people with Steve Chalke MBE, CEO Oasis Trust, in conversation with Sir Paul Grant, Education Advisor to the Metro Mayor. LT2 c) Can you tell me more? A more in depth look at some of the programmes and forthcoming publications that have been mentioned in the morning. 101

CONTINUED >

Schedule

Time	Content
1.40pm	People, Place, Policy – a choice of a) Whose education is it anyway? How do we build a more equitable education system for the next decade and beyond? Chaired by Dr Karen Edge and in discussion with Michael Stevenson, OECD, Curtis Worrell, Class 13, Dr Sana Rizvi, Liverpool John Moores University, Hannah Kirkbride, Career Matters, and Pelumi Fatayo, Fair Education Alliance. Sponsored by The Inspiration Learning Group. LTT b) The power of place: How can education institutions help their local communities become socially and economically stronger? Dame Ann Limb DBE chairs a discussion with Professor Joe Yates, Pro -Vice -Chancellor Faculty of Arts, Professional and Social Studies/Place and Partnership Liverpool John Moores University, Parminder Singh Garcha, Cambridgeshire and Peterborough Combined Authority, Jo Blundell, Place Matters, Steve Chalke, Oasis Trust and Professor Tanya Ovenden Hope, Plymouth Marjon University. Sponsored by LCR Connect. LT1 c) What are the key education policies we need for the next decade and how might we achieve them? Ideas and suggestions from David Gallagher, NCFE, Valerie Hannon, global thought leader, Rajay Naik, Skilled Education, Holly Papworth, Public First, Munira Wilson MP, and Patrick Wall, Edpol, chaired by Natascha Engel, Palace Yard. Sponsored by EdPol. LT2
2.30pm	Carl Ward, FED's Founder and Chair, talks to Bridget Phillipson MP, Shadow Secretary of State for Education, and to Munira Wilson MP, Liberal Democrat spokesperson, chaired by Natascha Engel, Palace Yard. Sponsored by BlueSky Education. LTT
2.50pm	Learners' voices and a summary of the day.
3.00pm	Finish.

Click here to learn more about
our speakers

Our sponsors and supporters

To find out more about our sponsors and supporters, please click the logo...

 academics.com

 BlueSky

 Cognition Education

 edpol.net

 Evaluate-Ed

 globalbridge

 Hub4Leaders

 THE INSPIRATIONAL
LEARNING
GROUP

 LCRCONNECT
PART OF THE FASTER BRITAIN NETWORK

 LEXONIK

 LIVERPOOL
JOHN MOORES
UNIVERSITY
Centre for Educational Leadership

 Liverpool Learning
PARTNERSHIP

 opogo

 Pearson

 Performance[®]
Learning

 The Glass House
Leadership Lab

 SHAKESPEARE
NORTH
PLAYHOUSE

 twin

 Strategi

The Foundation for Education Development

The FED is dedicated to promoting a long-term vision and framework for education in England. In the spirit of partnership, we provide an independent and neutral space for policy influencers from education, business, politics and beyond to shape the future.

Get involved.

Join in the conversation online and keep up to date with all things FED.

@fededucation

@fededucation

You can contact us at:

hello@fed.education

fed.education

Creative partner: strategisolutions.co.uk

Headline sponsor:

Hosts:

Supported by:

With thanks:

